WINEBUZZ

TASTY TRENTINO

Ca' Montini, one of northern Italy's finest producers, launches Terra di Valfredda Pinot Grigio 2010, made by newly appointed winemaker, Riccardo Cotarella. Imported by Aveniu Brands, it is fragrant, crisp and marked by floral and citrus notes. Cotarella's experience with Pinot Grigio comes from 12 years of experimentation conducted in the vineyard as well as in the cellar at the University of Viterbo where he is Professor of Oenology and Viticulture for three months of every year.
